

FRIDAY JANUARY 29, 2021

SION HILL POST

WELCOME

Welcome to this week's edition of our newsletter. Distance learning is continuing with high levels of effort and enthusiasm from everyone involved. The theme of Hope features heavily in this week's edition.

TY UPDATE

This week, the TY challenge was to take a moment to stop and watch the sunrise or sunset

RIDDLES

- I have no doors but I have keys, I have no room but I do have a space, you can enter but you can never leave. What am I?
- What is next in this sequence? JFMAMJJASON
- What is made of water but if you put it into water it will die?

Solutions to last week's riddle:

1. Bank
2. Echo
3. Darkness

The answers to these riddles will be included in next week's newsletter.

TABLE QUIZ - SAVE THE DATE

Our annual Table Quiz will take place on Friday the 29th of January.

Begins at 8pm

POEM

Song of Hope

Thomas Hardy

O sweet To-morrow!- While the winds wing
After to-day us
There will away Sighs from The Gone,
This sense of sorrow. Nearer to dawn
Then let us borrow Minute-beats bring
Hope, for a gleaming us;
Soon will be When there will sing
streaming, us
Dimmed by no gray – Larks of a glory
No gray! Waiting our story
Further anon –
Anon ...

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

As catholic school week draws to an end the thought for Friday is one of "Hope".

Hope- a word with which we can score highly. Hope is supportive, not competitive. Hope motivates, strengthens and encourages. It is forward looking.

PAST PUPIL NEWS

Huge congratulations to former Sion Hill Student Ruth Urwin (class of 2020) who has been awarded a Trinity College Dublin Entrance Exhibition Scholarship to reflect her outstanding achievement in the Leaving Certificate.

BIOLOGY (5TH YEAR)

Biology students were studying Photosynthesis this week and designed some very creative summaries

